

Title: Environmental Health & Safety Manager

Location: Richmond & Fairfield, CA

Compensation: Salary

Client: Confidential

Company Overview:

Our Client is a people-first, well-established CPG company located in Richmond and Fairfield, CA.

Job Description:

We have an exciting opportunity for an Environmental Health & Safety Manager to join our team during an exciting period of growth. The EH&S Manager develops, refines, and implements the health and safety programs at dual facilities and also takes the lead on ensuring compliance with environmental standards and regulations.

The EH&S Manager will report to the VP of Operations and will work in close collaboration with all departments including Human Resources, Maintenance & Engineering as well as Quality Assurance and Sanitation.

Education and Experience Requirements:

- 5 years' experience in EH&S, ideally in a manufacturing, preferably food or beverage, environment.
- BA/BS, ideally with an emphasis on environmental compliance or safety or related certification.
- Progressively acquired supervisory and managerial experience, ideally in an EH&S Manager role or as a supervisor ready to take on more responsibility.
- Knowledge of safety and health and environmental codes and regulations required.
- Fluency in Spanish is strongly preferred.
- EHS auditing/CSP, CIH, and/or CHMM desirable
