

Title: Financial Analyst

Location: Remote-United States

Compensation: Salary

Client: Confidential

Company Overview:

Our Client is a people-first, well-established CPG company.

Job Description:

This position is a key role within the Finance department, working closely with the Manager of Finance on all corporate forecasting, financial reporting, and other financial analysis activities. Key areas of responsibility include reporting and analysis around month-end close and other financial KPIs, assistance with the development of corporate forecasts, and collaborating cross-functionally on other projects.

Education and Experience Requirements:

- 1-3 years of FP&A or other related work experience.
- Bachelor's degree in finance or accounting preferred.
- Strong knowledge of Excel and other MS Office products.
- Experience with data visualization software (PowerBI) preferred.

Interested candidates may contact Angie Brouwers, Director of Recruitment, Consumer Packaged Goods Practice at abrouwers@berkeleysearch.com for immediate and confidential consideration.